

Looking to find out more about the River Glaven, the work of the River Glaven Conservation Group, plus the opportunity to hear from an expert, about its flora / fauna and wildlife, all from the comfort of your chair?

Then the Holt Society has just that opportunity.
You can join us to hear an illustrated talk entitled -

The Glaven: Holt's Own River

Presented by Dr Tony Leech; Norfolk's County Recorder for fungi and holder of Norfolk's most prestigious award for naturalists, the Sydney Long Memorial Medal, who will lead our illustrated 'stroll' along the River Glaven.

You are welcome to join us on

28th June at 7.30pm

Bar open from 7.00pm

at
